

Your Career Journey

You're in the driver's seat

As you progress through your programme, your ideas about your future career and the direction you want to take may evolve. What's most important is remembering that you are in control of your journey into the job market.

At LSE and within the Department of Management, you'll find a wide range of support and opportunities to help you shape your career strategy. From learning from others and building your network to increasing your visibility and preparing for job applications, we're here to support you.
